

INDIANA UNIVERSITY ROBERT H. MCKINNEY SCHOOL OF LAW
INCOMING STUDENT TRANSFER OF CREDIT POLICY

Criteria for Approving the Transfer of Credit Hours from a JD Program

Prior to registration, a student admitted with advanced standing must consult with the law school's Assistant Dean for Student Affairs regarding credits to be transferred. Indiana University Robert H. McKinney School of Law accepts transfer credits earned at an ABA-approved law school or a non-ABA-approved law school pursuant to ABA standard 505. The number of credits transferred depends on the quality of the student's academic record and the relationship of the coursework to the program at Indiana University Robert H. McKinney School of Law. A maximum of 30 hours of course credit may be transferred. Within the transfer credit maximum, no more than 6 of the 30 credits may be earned from non- Indiana University Robert H. McKinney School of Law foreign study abroad programs. (See Section J-(4) of the Student Handbook "Limits on Credits Earned in Programs Abroad" for more details.). Grades from transferred course credit will not be used to compute the student's cumulative grade point average at the Indiana University Robert H. McKinney School of Law. Only courses in which the student received a grade of "C" or above are eligible for transfer. Courses taken on a pass/fail basis generally will not transfer. However, if the applicant can show that the pass/fail course is equivalent to a "C" or above, credit will be considered. If credit is not given and the courses are required for graduation, the courses must be re-taken at Indiana University Robert H. McKinney School of Law. The student must maintain a grade point average of at least 2.3 or be subject to academic probation or dismissal. For more information on the Academic Probation and Dismissal Policy, visit:

Once an official transcript has been evaluated by the Assistant Dean for Student Affairs, the courses which have been accepted for transfer along with the number of hours for each are listed on an Audit Sheet for Transfer of Credit Courses. Note that only credits, not grades, transfer. The maximum number which may transfer to this school is 30 credit hours. If a student has deficiency of more than one (1) credit hour in a required course, that deficiency is noted on the audit sheet along with courses which may be taken to satisfy that requirement. Unless otherwise noted, any deficiency of more than one (1) credit hour may be satisfied by taking any course(s) listed on the audit sheet as satisfying that deficiency, so long as the credit hours for the course(s) equal or exceed the credit hours of deficiency. Only in extraordinary circumstance will the Assistant Dean for Student Affairs waive more than a one (1) credit deficiency. This waiver shall not reduce the total credit hours required for graduation.

Please provide course syllabi for the following courses taken at your previous law school so that a further analysis can be completed:

The following courses are required in the timeframe noted:

The following courses may not be taken at Indiana University Robert H. McKinney School of Law as transfer credit has been given for them:

*Please refer to Course Descriptions at <https://mckinneylaw.iu.edu/courses/required-jd.cfm> for additional information.

Your GPA and class rank from your previous school do not transfer. The grades earned at your previous school will not be used in calculating your GPA and class rank at Indiana University Robert H. McKinney School. You will have a GPA and class rank at the end of your first semester here; until then, if you provide anyone with information about your class rank and/or GPA from your previous school, please identify clearly the school at which those were earned. Ninety (90) credit hours are required for graduation.
